

FESTIVAL PROGRAMME

Saturday	2:00 - 4:00 pm	Riddle of the Stones, Story of Sites of Meaning
Sunday	10:00 - 4:00 pm	Riddle of the Stones, Other Stones : Other Meanings 1 & 2.
Monday	10:00 - 4:00 pm	Riddle of the Stones, Story of Sites of Meaning
Daily	during festival hours	Refreshments and activities for children

The festival office, activities and refreshments are in the Playground, Middleton by Youlgrave, DE45 1LS.

Riddle of the Stones

- in brief A walk for young adventurers. A walk around Middleton discovering some of the Sites of Meaning stones.
- activity Search for clues in the Sites of Meaning stones to solve the riddle of the stones.
- for Families with younger children.
- when Saturday from 2:00 - 4:00 pm, Sunday and Monday 10:00 - 4:00 pm.
- walk 2.5 miles over footpaths and local lanes with 60m ascent. Boots maybe helpful after wet weather.
- cost/booking £2 per child : no booking required

The Story of Sites of Meaning

- in brief A promenade lecture around eight stones with Charles Monkhouse who devised Sites of Meaning.
- activity Children can make a collection of materials to tell their own stories of the walk. Bags provided.
- for Adults and older children.
- when Saturday 27 October and Monday 29 October at 2:00pm.
- walk 5 miles over good paths, local lanes and farm land. 80m ascent. Boots may be helpful after wet weather.
- cost/booking £5 / £3. Includes collection bags for children. First 20 people, priority given to those who have booked.

Other Stones : Other Meanings 1

- in brief In the morning we explore stone in the village and in Bradford Dale that tell the history of Middleton. A local guide will introduce and discuss stones and sites in the area.
- for Adults and older children
- when Sunday 28 October 10:00 am
- walk Morning : 3 miles, 60 metres ascent, over public footpaths and local lanes, good footwear essential.
- cost/booking £4 or £10 for morning and afternoon. First 20 people, priority given to those who have booked.

Other Stones : Other Meanings 2

- in brief Afternoon walk exploring prehistoric Middleton. Recent discoveries in Hardy's Mine will be introduced by members of Derbyshire Caving Club while secrets of Arbor Low will be revealed by a local expert.
- for Adults and older children
- when Sunday 28 October 1:00 pm
- walk Afternoon : 6 miles, 175m ascent, private paths, farm land and local lanes, good footwear essential.
- cost/booking £8 or £10 for morning and afternoon. First 20 people, priority give to those who have booked.

Extra activities for children

During festival hours there will be activities for children in the playground: building towers with bamboo sticks, exploring colour on a large scale and creating collages using material gathered on walks.

Refreshments

During festival hours we will sell a walker's fare: hot drinks and cakes, soup and rolls, and food for children.

Booking, queries and further information email us Booking and queries to admin@middletonbywalking.org.uk. Bookings are only valid if you receive a confirmatory reply. Please pay on arrival.

website www.middletonbywalking.org.uk sites of meaning www.sitesofmeaning.org.uk

facebook www.facebook.com/middletonbywalking

twitter @middletonwalks